SIR,

I have the honor to forward herewith for the orders of Government copy of letter No. C.J.48/16-17 dated 14th August 1916 from the Deputy Commissioner Chitaldrug District proposing the formation of a village court at Nagasamudra in the Molakalmuru Taluk with effect from 1st October 1916 and to state that the necessary notification under section 3 of the Mysore Village Courts Regulation may be issued.

I have the honor to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient servant,

Revenue Commissioner.

V.M.R.

Letter No. C.J.48 of 16-17.dated 12/14th August 1916 from the Deputy Commissioner Chitaldrug District to the Revenue Commissioner in Mysore, Bangalore.

(4)

I have the honor to state that as there is only one village Munsiff's Court established at Rampur village in the Molakalmuru Taluk it is proposed to establish another court at Nagasamudra village of the same Taluk which is a fairly big village with a population of 1955. The Shanbhog of the village has been recommended both by the Amildar and Sub Division Officer to be appointed as Village Munsiff in preference to the patel as the former is more competent than the latter. There are also persons eligible under the rules to sit as Bench members in the village.

2. I request therefore that sanction of Government may be obtained for the establishment of a Village Munsiff's Court at Nagasamudra village with effect from 1st October 1916 with jurisdiction over the whole village.
